

ANNE-MARIE VALENCIA

WORK EXPERIENCE

CURRENT

Mathamorphosis

Private Tutor/Founder

- Earned reputation as a dependable, respectable, professional with tremendous concern for the clients' emotional and educational welfare.
- Achieved success helping students to improve performance & self-confidence.
- Created original teaching method designed to promote understanding of mathematics beginning with the basic principles.

Mesivta Birkas Yitzchok High School

Los Angeles, CA

Director of Mathematics

B'nos Devorah High School

Los Angeles, CA

Director of Mathematics

Tutors on Wheels

Los Angeles, CA

Consultant

PREVIOUS

2001 Maimonides Academy

Los Angeles, CA

Mathematics Teacher

1989–2001 Harvard-Westlake School

N. Hollywood, CA

Mathematics Teacher (Upper/Middle School)

- Gained a wide range of teaching experience in all courses from pre-algebra through college-level calculus.
- Encouraged students to use mathematics to develop logical reasoning and thinking skills that are essential in daily life.
- Used a common-sense approach so that complicated and abstract concepts become simple.

Summer 1999 University of California, Los Angeles

Los Angeles, CA

Mathematics Teacher

Summer 1994 Crossroads Middle School

Los Angeles, CA

Mathematics Teacher

1988–1989 Ste. Marie's School

Manchester, NH

Mathematics Teacher

1987–1988 Strategic Directions International

Los Angeles, CA

Business Analyst-Consulting Firm

EDUCATION

1983–1987 Dartmouth College

Hanover, NH

BA Engineering/Applied Mathematics

1979–1983 Profile School

Bethlehem, NH

Class Valedictorian, National Honors Society, DAR Good Citizen

